

New Captain Takes Charge of S. A. Work Here

Announcement is made of the arrival in Torrance of Captain Joy Kirkpatrick who comes to succeed Envoy Ivy Grace in the command of the local corps of the Salvation Army.

Five years ago Envoy Grace opened the Salvation Army work in this community and has been in command during that period. A well organized local corps has been established with the various branches of the organization's activities developed in both senior and junior departments, and under the leadership of Captain Kirkpatrick much success is predicted for the future.

Overrule Protests on 252nd St. Work

Protests were denied by the Los Angeles City Council against the improvement of 252nd street between Bellefonte avenue and the Los Angeles western city limits. The city engineer was instructed to prepare plans for proceeding with the work.

Students of University of Athens Do Some Rioting

A band of students of the University of Athens, armed with clubs, staging a riot which was stopped only by the intervention of the police and a threat from the government to close the university for a year. Cablegrams didn't tell what it was all about.

PAINFUL CORNS Loosen—Lift Out

A little known Japanese herb, the discovery of an eminent German scientist (Dr. Stickle) instantly soothes the corn, callous or wart, then loosens it so that shortly you can lift it right out. This new discovery called "Corn Fly" excites the white blood corpuscles to action and granulates the corn at its root so that it drops out and leaves no trace of scar or soreness.

"One of the Scripture citations in the Lesson-Sermon includes the following words from Luke: "And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue; and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house, for he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a-dying. While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, 'Thy daughter is dead, trouble not the Master. But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, 'Fear not, believe only, and she shall be made whole. Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth. And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, 'Maid, arise. And her spirit came again, and she arose straight-

Trombonist to Play at Church

Paul P. Petticoord, the "noted trombonist," son of the great evangelical preacher will play at the Methodist church Sunday night. Among the many great musicians of today, Mr. Petticoord, because of his many travels, and musical education, ranks among the few noted and appreciated trombonists. Citizens of Torrance, we give you the best, we bring them to your city for the good you and your children receive. We expect our Methodist orchestra to play on that night. Rev. R. A. Young in the pulpit.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Young of Amapola avenue returned home Sunday from San Francisco. Mrs. Young has been visiting relatives in the northern city for the past month and her husband drove up last week end.

Great Interest in Sunday Night Service

Sunday evening's service at the Foursquare Gospel church, corner of Redondo boulevard and Cota avenue, resulted in five conversions, with many others seeking consolation at the altar. The church was crowded, and the oldtime fire and fervor was manifested throughout the service. The Sunshine Band from Angelus Temple assisted the pastor, Rev. J. C. Gable in the evening service and contributed a stirring musical program.
